Fundraising Guide for Event Participants

E.g. marathons, half marathons, sky dives, endurance events.

So you want to fundraise for BGP? How bloody great are you! We have created this super helpful guide for fundraising through event participation.

Please Note: we're not able to invest in charity spaces for events such as marathons and half marathons ourselves - but we are absolutely thrilled if you want to take part in support of us. Just to be super clear, this means that you have to cover entrance fees for yourself.

Fundraising for us

At BGP we are exceptionally grateful for every ££ raised by fundraising legends like you! For participation in events like the ones listed above, we ask for a pledged donation of £350. - This is to help us with planning and budgeting, and cover our time in supporting you too - that all means we can continue our mission to ensure that anyone who menstruates has a bloody good period.

If you send us confirmation of your place in an event and your intention to donate any funds raised to us with a pledge of £350, we will send you some ace BGP merch to help you on your way!

You will receive:

- BGP Pin Badge
- Ace pad stickers
- BGP t-shirt personalised with your name

We have a super handy guide for other fundraising ideas to help you towards your goal prior to/or after taking part in your event. You can find this here.
